THE MAGIC CITY.

GREAT SUCCESS OF "THE LEDGER'S" GIFT TO PATRONS.

Instructions How to Get a Set of the Handsome World's Fair Views Published.

THE LEDGER on Saturday began distributing to its patrons the finest series of World's Fair Views that have yet been issued. This is the testimony of all who have seen them:

Now, we will try to make plain the way to get them:

First—Cut out of THE LEDGER this coupon:

Public Ledger.
Magic City Art Portfolio Coupon.

Mail or bring to the office of THE LEDGER SIX Coupons like this, of different dates, and Ten Cents in silver, and receive Art Portfolio No. 6 of the World's Fair.

NOTE—Six Coupons of different dates and Ten Cents are required for each Portfolio. There will be sixteen numbers.

March 27, 1894.

Second—When you have cut out SIX coupons of different dates,—if you live in the city and your paper is delivered by carrier,—bring them to this office WITH TEN CENTS, and one book of the Views will be given to you. If you live at some other place, send the six coupons and ten cents by mail to this office and the book will be sent to you by mail from Philadelphia.

Third—If you have mislaid any of your coupons, you can get the books at 15 cents each, and you can get the back numbers at any time. After the set is finished appropriate binding can be had at a small cost.

The set comprises sixteen books, and when completed it will form a most magnificent volume. There's no other way in which you can secure such an art treasure for so little money.

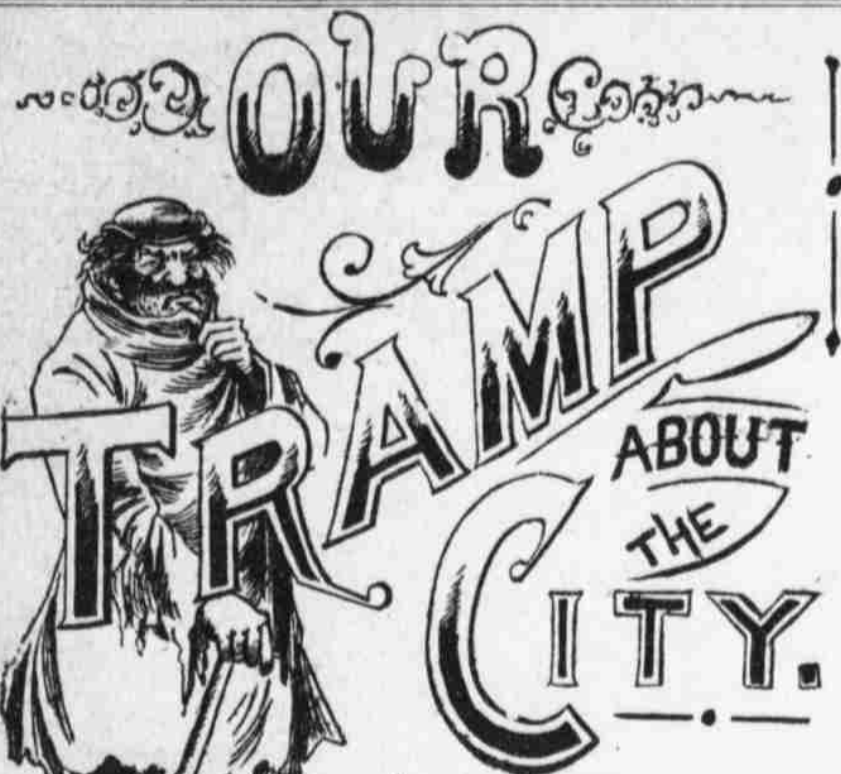

PLEASE REMEMBER.

When we say SIX coupons, we don't mean five.

When we say coupon, we mean the entire coupon with the border around it, and not a piece of it.

The date at the bottom of the coupon is changed every day, and you must send us six of different dates.

Under no circumstances will any exceptions be made to the above requirements.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

OLIVER P. SULLIVAN, prominent politician and Democratic politician, succeeded by shooting at New Richmond, O.

THE banner year for railroad building in this country was 1887. In that year 12,878 miles of new track were completed and put in operation.

THE cost of the Union Pacific is given at $155,529,559 93. The present value of all its property of every description is given at $243,431,041 92.

HIS HEART ALL RIGHT.

It Was Our Young Friend Spalding's Head That Was Hurt.

The following letter doesn't need a diagram of any sort:

LOUISVILLE, March 26th, 1894.
Thomas A. Davis, Esq.—Dear Sir: * * * You were mistaken in my heart failure. It was a failure of my head. My heart is all right; but hard as my head was, it is not intended to come in competition with a brick wall. My head is improving slowly, and the wall is not injured in the least.

Well, it turns out that Miss Pollard seduced that innocent young Congressman. She ought to be ashamed of herself. Poor fellow! Kentucky is in tears, and so are the Boston and New York Leagues. What a pity such an inexperienced youth should be treated so mean. Yours truly,
D. SPALDING.

In eleven principal Western states the building of 26,000 miles of railroad line caused the settlement of 93,500,000 acres of farming land.

THE small boats that are running in the Vaneburg and Augusta trade are fairly churning the river in their endeavor to secure the trade. Let the best and cheapest and the fastest boat win.

THE champion egg eater of the state lives at Harrodsburg, in the person of John Street, a farmer sixty-odd years old, and in comfortable circumstances. He has just finished the feat of eating ninety-three dozen eggs in ninety-three consecutive days. The eggs were cooked in various styles for each meal.

JOHN HOSTETTER, who was a candidate for Jailor of Fayette county, shot and instantly killed Henry Jackson, colored. Jackson was in Hostetter's henhouse and with the assistance of two other negroes had reduced Hostetter's fowls from eighty-three in number to thirty-two. The negro's head was shot off above the ears.

CLAY is one of Kentucky's Prohibition mountain counties. It seems, however, that up there Prohibition doesn't prohibit worth a cent. There are at present on the docket of the Circuit Court twenty-five murder cases. Moonshine and blind tiger liquor seems to have got in its work. At least most of the crimes are attributed to whisky drinking.

SUPREME PRESIDENT TRAYNOR of the A. P. A. made a speech at Salt Lake City on the objects and aims of the association. He declared that the Order now controlled two million votes and would name United States Senators in several Western states next year. He also said that it was through the influence of the organization that John Y. McKane was sent to Sing Sing.

THE Winchester City Council proposes to fix license as follows: Saloons, $300; quart houses, $150; drugstores, $75; mills, $20; express companies, $20; laundries and laundry agents, $50; telegraph companies, $5; livery stables, $20; coal yards, $10; billiard and pool tables, $40; auctioneers, per year, $10; business houses, three grades—business of $5,000 or over, $5; business of $2,000 or over, $3; business of $1,000 or over, $2; milk wagon, $2.

HON. HUNTER WOOD of Hopkinsville, Cleveland's former Collector of Internal Revenue for the Second District, made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. He couldn't stand a second dose of Cleveland times—it is so different now, you know. Mr. Wood was at one time a partner in the newspaper business with Captain Sam Gaines, formerly of this city, who now can stand the Cleveland times, because he's got hold of a big hind teat of the Treasury cow.

ANOTHER large crowd was out last night at the First Baptist Church attending the prayer service. These services should be attended by all Christian people, as they are for the good of our city. Mr. Maloney, the gentleman who will lead the singing and assist Mr. Fife, will arrive today and be at the services tonight. On tomorrow night Mr. Fife will be here. A large number of extra seats have been provided, and the committee in charge now think there will be seating room for all. Everybody cordially invited, and especially the unconverted.

THERE are about 500 members of the A. P. A. at Lexington, and the Order is less than a month old.

ALEX. D. E. CLOGER, late Superintendent of the Sun Life Insurance Company at this place, has gone to Cincinnati.

HARRY J. RICHARDSON, who successfully passed the Clerk-Carrier examination in this city, made a percentage of 77.13.

THE lumber town of Ford, down on the Kentucky Central, was nearly wiped out by fire. Loss, $10,000; insurance, $2,100.

DR. J. C. KILGOUR, who removed from Maysville to Harrison, O., last October, is meeting with fine success in his new location.

HON. JOE M. KENDALL has announced himself a candidate for Congress in the Tenth Kentucky District against Representative Lisle.

MRS. CAROLINE FREY, formerly of this city, widow of Baldus Frey, died in Cincinnati and the remains were brought here and interred at Washington yesterday.

MISS ESSIE CROW, aged 15, made two attempts to suicide near Marion, one with strychnine and the other with laudanum. Medical attention saved her life. The cause was a reproach from her mother for carelessness. She still avers that she will kill herself.

THE City Council of Henderson has granted privilege for the erection of a tabernacle in that city to be occupied by Sam Jones. It is to seat not less than 4,000 people and the evangelist is to insure the payment of all expenses of its erection. The Jones circus season is to begin soon.

JUDGE WILLIAM B. KINKADEE died at Lexington, aged 84. He was born in Woodford county, studied law in the office of Stevenson & Carlisle at Covington, and was afterwards a partner with John in that city. He had lived in Lexington thirty-five years, was for many years County Judge, and then Internal Revenue Collector under Mr. Cleveland. He is the father of Judge B. Kinkadee, a prominent member of the Lexington bar, and Shelby Kinkadee, a leading citizen.

GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGED.

Miss Dollie Rose of Manchester Thanks "The Ledger" Patrons.

Miss Dollie Rose, the unfortunate young lady of Manchester, to whom THE LEDGER recently sent several thousand cancelled postage stamps, kindly contributed by generous-hearted ladies and gentlemen, writes as follows in acknowledgment:

MANCHESTER, O., March 26th, 1894.

Editor Public Ledger: Since first notice in PUBLIC LEDGER relative to my case I have received a great many stamps from your state. I have been very busy with my stamps for the past two weeks.

I assort each denomination separate, count and tie up bunches, 100 in each bunch. This is no little task, especially for one who cannot sit up to do the work. I lie flat on my back day and night, and have not had my feet to the floor for over four years. I was almost discouraged in my effort to secure so great a number of stamps until the papers came to my rescue. I believe now I can secure the one million. All denominations are acceptable but care should be taken not to mutilate them in separating them from the paper. In other words, the stamps should be entire. Government stamps should be cut out square (not round) with a margin one quarter of an inch wide. I receive a great many stamps, but in sorting, I find a great many that are torn or cut too closely. I often lose as many as 2,500 out of 3,000. These stamps are sent to Germany for decorative purposes. I desire to thank each one who has contributed stamps for my benefit. Respectfully,
DOLLIE ROSE.

Many thanks for 5,000 stamps received some few days since from you and your readers.
DOLLIE ROSE.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—'Twill WARMER grow;
If Black's BENEATH—COLDER 'twill be;
Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

THE IDES OF MARCH.

'Tis but a year ago
Since I was landed here,
And yet how many things
Have happened in the year!

Just fancy first, that I
Am Caesar for the nonce.
Behold my Free-trade cloak,
'Twas wounded more than once.

Here Brutus Hill his knife
Inserted, and, alas!
Then Cassius Murphy came
And ripped it up the back.

'Tis not the cloak I wore
A year ago at all;
It hangs around my great form
Just like a fun'ral pall.

Yet I remain the great,
The only, Grover C.,
And Lilly O. Kellan,
She's all the world to me.
